

LAC + USC Medical Center Replacement Hospital • Los Angeles, CA

At A Glance

Hunt Role

*General Contractor
Lump Sum Bid*

Construction Cost

$647 million

Completion

May 2008

Client

County of Los Angeles, DPW

Architect

HOK Group

A new 600-bed, 1.5 million SF facility, and a teaching hospital for the University of Southern California that includes four major components: a seven-story outpatient building; an eight-story inpatient tower; a five-story diagnostic and treatment building and a central energy plant. The nation's largest healthcare project west of the Mississippi.

Awards Won

- 2009 McGraw-Hill's Best of the Best National Honors in Healthcare
- 2009 McGraw-Hill's Best of the Best National Honors in Teamwork/Project Management
- California Construction Best of 2009, Outstanding Project Management (Large)
- California Construction Best of 2009, Healthcare
- 2009 named One of the "29 Best Buildings in Los Angeles" by Fast Company
- AGC of California 2009 Constructor Award "Meeting the Challenge of the Difficult Job - Builder" Award
- 2008 ASCE Los Angeles Outstanding Architectural Engineering Project
- 2008 The Building of America - Gold Medal Winner, Construction Communications

